Dear Mr. Drasnin,

I am writing to let you know that I thought your program, "Hollywood Dreams" was absolutely first-rate. It captured the excitement and utter arbitrariness of this business, and the people you featured were brilliantly chosen. (My only problem was Mike Fenton, who I thought was far more concerned with posturing than he needed to be. The others were wonderful.)

I hope you are planning to do more on the subject. This effort was superb, but left me hungering for more.

Sincerely,

Joseph Seldner
